

JŪRMALA

a tourist's guide to the city

NATURE TRAILS

In Jūrmala, the urban environment and pristine nature live practically next to each other. With their well-maintained trails, observation towers and birdwatching towers, the nature parks amid Jūrmala's dunes and marshes let visitors get close to and learn about the local flora and fauna and discover their secrets. As you walk on the moss- and lichen-covered ground between centuries-old trees, you might find a wolf's footprints, encounter mysterious nocturnal bats or get surprisingly close to the easily startled world of birds.

ĶEMERI NATIONAL PARK

Ķemeri National Park (ĶNP) is the first special protected nature area in Latvia to be included in the European Charter for Sustainable Tourism. Here you'll find rare bird and plant species, including the White-tailed eagle, European eagle-owl, Black storks and cranes. Wild cattle and horses live in the Dunduri Meadow area of the park. Guided tours focusing on birds, bats and beavers are also available. The ĶNP information centre (Meža māja) is open to visitors from May to October and provides detailed information about tourist activities in the park. Contact the information centre to find out about its educational programmes and to arrange guided tours (Meža māja, Ķemeri. T. +371 67730078. www.kemerunacionalaisparks.lv).
HOW TO GET THERE? By train, take the Riga–Ķemeri or Riga–Tukums line to the Ķemeri station. By bus, take minibus No. 10 (Bulduri–Ķemeri) or bus No. 6 (Sloka–Ķemeri) to the Meža māja stop.

ALDER FEN (MELNALKŠŅU DUMBRĀJS) TRAIL

This 600-metre-long boardwalk trail meanders past the Vēršupīte stream and through a large area of frequently flooded land, well suited to black alder. Many unique plants and animals have adapted to this damp environment and call it home. Due to the ample food resources, eight of Latvia's nine woodpecker species also live here. The fen is most beautiful in the springtime, when marsh marigolds bloom on the banks of the bubbling stream and the air vibrates with bird songs and woodpeckers drumming on the trees.

GREAT ĶEMERI BOG TRAIL

Follow the recently reconstructed boardwalk trail through the Great Ķemeri Bog for a wondrous walk in a pristine natural environment. The trail leads past mosses, bog pines, pools, small dark lakes and aromatic marsh tea. If you look closely, you'll see the insect-eating sundew plant or notice a Wood sandpiper, White wagtail or Tree pipit. In the distance you'll hear cranes calling. The trail offers two routes, one shorter and the other longer. The longer route includes a observation tower for a grand view of the area from an elevated position. Guided tours of the marsh can be arranged through the ĶNP information centre.

NATURE SCHOOL

The ĶNP Nature School encourages children, teens and young adults to get out into nature. It organises educational activities (in Latvian only) in the forest, marsh and by bodies of water with the goal of fostering an understanding of nature and the environment by studying it and getting to know it up close. The school offers a variety of activities for all age groups.

RAGAKĀPA NATURE PARK

Measuring 800 metres long and 100 metres wide, Ragakāpa is a dune created by the wind. The park contains stands of pines that are up to 340 years old as well as several rare plant and bird species. The park has four trails – the Scenic Trail, Insect Trail, Pine Trail and Plant Trail – which are enhanced by viewing platforms, steps, benches and informative signs (36. līnija, Bulduri, by the Jūrmala Open-Air Museum).

WHITE DUNE (BALTĀ KĀPA)

The White Dune, rising to a height of 15–17 metres, was created in the mid-18th century on the right bank of the Lielupe River near the Buljupe River. This dune is one of the most beautiful protected natural landscapes in Jūrmala. The best views of the dune are from the opposite side (left bank) of the Lielupe River or from aboard the Riga-bound ferry.

BULDURI DENDROLOGICAL PARK

The first horticulture school in Latvia was established on the grounds of the Bulduri Estate in 1910. The school ran an experimental farm until the First World War; its orchards contained more than 200 fruit tree varieties, and the school also grew carrots, tomatoes and corn. Today, visitors can enjoy the fruits of the students' labour as they stroll past the rhododendrons, flower beds and trees in the 12-hectare dendrological park. On the last Saturday of July the school hosts its annual Flower Days. The school's museum is open to visitors by prior arrangement (Bulduri Horticulture School, Viestura iela 6. T. +371 67753135, www.bulduri.lv).

MUSEUMS AND GALLERIES

Jūrmala's museums, galleries and exhibition halls provide an exciting look into the city's cultural history and contemporary cultural scene. Spend some time in the former homes of the city's most famous residents, which have been turned into memorial museums and still retain an aura of times gone by. Or visit a unique space such as the spa history museum, located in a legendary sanatorium, or the contemporary art exhibit in a railway station.

WHERE TO EAT

Jūrmala's restaurants and eateries mirror the city's history – a multi-national and saturated experience of flavours. They reflect historical tastes as well as contemporary culinary fashions and the local residents' daily rituals. Guests can always find something suited to their taste and mood among the city's 150 diverse restaurants. Many are found right in the centre of the city, along Jomas iela and the surrounding streets, where a variety of live music often accompanies diners well into night during the summer season.

A more extensive gastronomic tour of Jūrmala can lead one to a wonderful meal amongst the dunes or on the banks of the river, with a grand view of nature and yachts calmly sliding by or, in the evening, Europe's most beautiful sunset reflected on your plate. It's no wonder that during the summer several of the seaside restaurants, cafés and grill bars are open late into the night or even till dawn, letting guests leisurely enjoy the magic of a summer night, only to return the next day for an equally relaxing brunch with family or friends. Many of Jūrmala's restaurants feature local cuisine – both traditional and contemporary interpretations thereof – with the catch of the day from the nearby waters playing a prominent role on the menu. If you yearn for something a bit more exotic, it's just as easy to find a meal inspired by the Caucasus or the Orient... or savour a bit of Old Europe, where Italian and French cooking take centre stage. Jūrmala takes pride in being home to some of Latvia's best restaurants. For more information see www.visitjurmala.lv.

WHERE TO STAY

Peace, quiet and absolute relaxation. Jūrmala is an oasis from the chaos and stress of everyday life. A place to replenish one's energy.

The city's various accommodations also embody this sense of calm, offering something for every budget, mood and style. From affordable spa holiday spots to small, exquisite boutique spa hotels, luxury hotels exuding the splendour of the past and spa medical institutions with years of professional experience.

SPA MEDICINE TRADITIONS AND MODERN MEDICINE

Jūrmala's medical institutions have over a century and a half of experience. They offer the newest modern medical treatment programmes as well as proven natural healing procedures. The city's clinics are equipped with the latest medical technology and provide patients with the highest level of comfort, which is why more and more families are calling Jūrmala the best place in the world to give birth. Diagnostics are also highly regarded, and Jūrmala Hospital is a first choice for stomach reduction surgery and laser treatment for varicose veins as well as various complicated dental procedures, including implants and prosthetic dentistry. Treatment with the RIGVIR® virus, one of today's most promising cancer therapy methods, is also available in Jūrmala at the Global Virotherapy Cancer Clinic.
