

Jūrmala Loves Holidays For Two

This year February 14 falls on a Friday, and the sun will set shortly after 5 PM in Jūrmala. If the clouds will have dissolved, Valentine's day is likely to have a pink sunset to watch with your other half on a beach, the scenic river bank of Lielupe, in a canoe, gliding across the lake of The Great Ķemeri bog or from the comfort of a hotel room balcony, admiring the play of colours in water and sky. Jūrmala, the oasis of a romantic epoch on the shores of The Baltic Sea only around ten kilometres from Riga, is just the right place for celebrating love on Valentine's Day. The city's hotels and restaurants have prepared unforgettable holiday offers at affordable prices.
