

To take a break!

To take a break from the daily rush and let others take care of you - that is the formula of a good holiday. Jurmala SPA hotels are tempting and they pamper parents and children, couples in love and those who are longing to regain the harmony of body and mind in an invigorating solitude.