JŪRMALA CITY MUSEUM

Jūrmala Museum will tell visitors about the beginning and development of Jūrmala resort from the end of the 19th century till the end of 20th century.

Multimedia exposition "SPACE OF RAINIS. Spaciousness. Depth. Infinity" is a touch to words, thoughts and ideas – it is a call to meet the Latvia poet Rainis and yourself. Various art and historical exhibitions, as well as thematical workshops and events for children take place in the museum art spaces.

The museum souvenir shop has a wide choice of authentic souvenirs for good memory of Jūrmala resort.

HOUSE OF ASPAZIJA

House of the prominent Latvian poetress Aspazija in Dubulti is one of the most beautiful museums in Jūrmala. The special atmosphere of the House of Aspazija is created by music, art and history; the restored exhibition of the museum helps experience the spirit of the last century, via not only early 20th century household items and interiors, but also projected holograms and interactive educational games. Take a short walk along the narrow street Aspazijas iela that leads to the beach and take a picture with the sculpture "Aspazija in the dunes"!

JŪRMALA OPEN-AIR MUSEUM

The Jūrmala Open Air Museum is located in Bulluciems, nearby the Ragakāpa Nature Park, and is the largest museum in Jūrmala. The museum reveals a typical coastal fisherman's household from the end of the 19th and the beginning of the 20th century - a fishnet hut, a dwelling house, a barn, a fish smokehouse, bathing hut. The museum has an extensive collection of anchors and fishing boats, as well as Latvia's richest collection of tools and materials for wreathing ropes.

The museum is proud of its exhibition about fishery boat constructing, revealing the authentic unfinished wooden boat and ancient construction devices.

Picnic and fireplace spots are available for extra charge.

DUBULTI ART STATION

This is the only modern art space in Europe that is located in a functioning railway station. The Dubulti Art Station is an excellent example of how to combine transport, cultural and public administration resources to make a unique art platform accessible to everyone. Dubulti Art Station offers the best Latvian modern artists' exhibitions, as well as international art projects.

The Dubulti Railway Station was built in 1977, and, according to the idea of its architect Igor Javein, it created associations with the rolling sea.

ĶEMERI WATER TOWER

Ķemeri Water Tower is a part of the historical industrial heritage of Latvia. After reconstruction in 2021 the 42-meter high Water Tower, preserving its main function, attracts visitors with expositions about the history of Ķemeri resort as well as with spectacular views opening from the two panoramic platforms.

The Water Tower is located in the historical Ķemeri resort park, which is the oldest and largest public garden in Latvia outside Rīga. The landscape park with small architecture forms, mineral water springs and sculptures is beautiful in any season.

ART GALLERY "INNER LIGHT"

Luminous painting gallery is not only an art gallery, but also an interesting and exciting tourist attraction. Every painting by artist Vitaliy Yermolayev hides the mystery of light. In special lighting, works of art begin to glow, and in the place of the painting visible to the viewer, another, previously concealed one appears.

As an interesting addition to various celebrations and corporate events, the gallery also offers painting masterclasses.

Pulstenis „Saulgrīdītis“, kurā Aspazija glabāja Raiņa vēstules, kas raksturo cietuma un Sibīrijas tirdzības kaili Clock “Saulgrīdītis”, in which Aspazija has hidden letters written during Raņa imprisonment and exile in Siberia

Aspazijas vēstule Rainim

1899. gada 29. oktobrī (11. novembrī)

*Tā ir mazputniņa istabiņa, bet ļoti nelīdzsvarota, jo nemaz nemāku zīmēt. Lielputniņš joti mani izsmie, bet laba tomēr!
Pie rakstāmgalda es sēžu dienā. Tev ir krēslīņš pa labi no loga. (.) Uz humores spoguļlīdri, pie sienas saulespuķīte, vienu ar uzlīdīti, bet viņas minūti noskaidro, arī guļēt ejot. Uz rakstāmgalda rakstāmpiederumi, kas piesieti ar zaļu diegu, un Tevu bildīte. Beidzamās vēstulītes tiek nēsātas habatā, vecākās glabātas saulespuķītes. Ja tā ir pavisam pilna, tad visu aizved uz Jēgavu un ieslēdz pie citām vēstulītēm kopā ar sarkano šallīti.*

Aspazija's letter to Rainis

29 October (11 November) 1899

*This is the Little Bird's room, but it has not come out well, because I don't know how to draw. The Big Bird will laugh at me, but the room is good after all: I sit by the desk during the day; the chair to the right of the window is yours. (.) There is a mirror on the dresser;
the "Sunflower" is always on the wall, always wound up, but only after the Darning has been knased, [which takes place] also when I go to sleep. On the desk, there are stationery items tied with a green thread, and your picture. The newest letters are carried in my pocket, the older ones kept in the "Sunflower". If it is too full, then everything is taken to Jēgava and locked up with other letters together with the red scarf.*

SUMMER COTTAGE OF RAINIS AND ASPAZIJA

Jūrmala is the town that inspired Latvia's greatest poets Rainis and Aspazija. The museum brings joy to the residents and guests of the resort town letting them experience the time when the poetic couple created many of their works and left an indelible trace not only in Latvian literature, but also in our language and worldview.

The basic exposition is dedicated to the life of the poets in Jūrmala cottage, while the several art rooms are hosting art events and small art exhibitions.
