Omnibusa iela 19, Majori. Opening hours: every day 11:00 – 17:00. Tickets: Adults EUR 5, students and groups up to 10 people EUR 3, pupils and seniors EUR 1.

KEMERI NATIONAL PARK

The national park is set up in a place where thousands of years ago was the ancient Litorina Sea. Retreating, it left behind its lagoon, which turned into the creation of unique bogs and lakes with hydrogen sulphide mineral springs, rivers and annually flooded forest stands.

GREAT KEMERI BOG BOARDWALK

The Great Kemer Bog is one of the main sulphur water producing bogs around Kemer. During the passage of migratory birds the bog is an excellent place for bird viewing. The Great Kemer Bog Boardwalk will make your way easy into this otherwise hardly accessible land of moss, undersized pine trees, deep pools, tiny dark lakes and the flavour of wild rosemary.

BLACK ALDER SWAMP BOARDWALK

This Kemer National Park trail begins at the Park Information Center "Meža māja" and is 600 meters long. The trail is suitable for families with children - at the beginning of the trail there is a playground, near there is also Kemer historical resort park with interesting buildings of the last century, bridges, churches and other environmental objects. The park also contains hydrogen sulphide mineral water source "Kizaciņa".

SLOKA LAKE WALKING TRAIL WITH A BIRD-WATCHING TOWER

The trail runs along the shore of a rich lake through different forests. The trail begins and ends at Sloka Lake, at the beginning there is a parking lot, a picnic area and a 7 m high "floating" bird watching tower.

LŪŽŅU DITCH SULPHUR SPRING

An approximately 3-km long route offers you to extend your walks around the Kemer area, going to the strongest of the known sulphur springs - the Lūžņu Ditch Sulphur Spring, which hides deeper in the woods. The route begins at the information centre "Meža māja" and on the way to the source also offers one of the best bird watching opportunities - especially for watching woodpeckers.

To get to Kemer National Park you can use both train and Jurmala minibus Nr. 5 (Bulduri – Kemer) and bus No. 6 (Sloka - Kemer).
More info www.kemerunacionalaisparks.lv
